Out-of-home care for disabled children consultation

The Government is now looking for public feedback, they want to hear from disabled children, their families/whānau, those who support them, and people with an interest in the review about how voluntary out-of-home placements can be improved. If you want your voice to be heard click on the website below:

<https://www.msd.govt.nz/about-msd-and-our-work/work-programmes/policy-development/disabled-children-project/in-home-support-and-voluntary-out-of-home-placement-review.html>

People can also call the Ministry on 029 650 0602 or (04) 931 2395 and ask them to mail out information. There are community consultation events taking place across the country. To receive regular updates about these events, contact the Ministry at dcp@msd.govt.nz. Feedback is due by 29th May 2015.

Health Passport feedback

Health Quality and Safety Commission Consumer Network is inviting feedback about the passport. The passport is a communication aid for people living with disabilities to use with their health care providers. It is to be filled out by a consumer or carer and outlines specific information about the person's disability or medical condition that will assist staff treating that person to provide the appropriate care. The passport has been used for a few years now and the consumer network is interested to hear from people who have used it, and to understand how effective it was in assisting staff to understand their needs.
