

Collaborate for Transition

Supporting people with disabilities into adulthood
in South Auckland

Tuesday 14th March 10am—12pm on Zoom

Are you: a parent, or do you work for a school, education provider or community service that works with people with disabilities? Then this hui is for you!

Working to draw together all parts of the community that help people with disabilities to build connection, collaboration and information sharing. These meetings have a particular focus around the transition from school to adulthood.

Everyone is welcome at these hui, we would love you to share your ideas and resources with this group, or to come along and learn from others.
