

Feedback on the future of disability support services

The Disability Support Services Taskforce is working on how disability support services should best be provided in the future.

- Find out more about the survey, including information in alternate formats
- Take the survey here.

About Disability Support Services

Disability Support Services (DSS) is a business group in the Ministry of Social Development. It is responsible for providing essential support to around 50,000 disabled people and their whānau, as well as equipment and modification services for approximately 100,000 New Zealanders.

For disabled people, whānau and carers, your first point of contact is your provider, NASC, or Enabling Good Lives site.

Survey

Survey deadline is 22nd November

DSS Issues consultation to run from 29 October to 22 November

The Disability Support Services Taskforce is working on how disability support services should best be provided in the future.

We want to acknowledge many of you have given feedback throughout the year on disability support services, and we want to thank you for that.

Read More

GENERAL ENQUIRIES

Phone: 0800 33 23 22

Full access and participation for Email: hello@deaf.org.nz
Deaf in Aotearoa / New Zealand

Freetext: 8223

Copyright 2020 Deaf Aotearoa Holdings Limited

webversion - unsubscribe - update profile