STUDIO ONE — TOI TŪ

We invite you to join us this Wednesday evening as we celebrate the opening of four exciting new exhibitions. Our lineup features a diverse array of shows, from immersive installations to sculptures and reimagined biscuit tins. We hope to see you there!

Opening event: Wed 10 Apr, 5pm - 7pm

Tinned Goods | Sarah-Jane Blake

Exhibition dates: 11 Apr - 9 May

Opening event: Wed 10 Apr, 5pm - 7pm

The humble biscuit tin transforms into a portal, offering an escape to other worlds.

Drawing inspiration from peephole dioramas and toy theatres, painted paper cutouts fill many tins, creating hidden landscapes and interior spaces.

"I'm Fine" (I Lied) | Jenny Zhong

Exhibition dates: 11 Apr - 9 May

Opening event: Wed 10 Apr, 5pm - 7pm

"I'm Fine" (I Lied) is an immersive sculptural installation by emerging artist Jenny Zhong. The exhibition explores the hidden emotions experienced by adults, representing specific yet ambiguous emotions through irregular shapes and vibrant colours. The artwork invites viewers on a sensory journey that mirrors the ever-changing nature of our inner lives.

Pillow Garden | Hanna Shim

Exhibition dates: 11 Apr - 9 May

Opening event: Wed 10 Apr, 5pm - 7pm

Hanna Shim's Pillow Garden is an immersive installation featuring oversized plant-inspired soft sculptures, transform the gallery into a sensory haven. Crafted from unconventional soft materials, these sculptures challenge the traditional gallery space. Beyond visuals, the installation weaves fragrances, sounds, and sentiments from Shim's Korean heritage into the visitor's experience.

#Iconograph | Dita Angeles

Exhibition dates: 10 - 14 Apr

Opening event: Wed 10 Apr, 5pm - 7pm

Artist Talk: Sat 13 Apr, 4pm - 4pm

#Iconograph is an exhibition of paintings and scriptures that parallel the social media influencer with religious iconography. Created by Dita Angeles, her themes of ego, identity, and social presentation combine with her strong background in portraiture to create a spectacular collection of paintings.
